

Shared Lives Carers Privacy Notice

Date and version	January 2021 v2.0
------------------	-------------------

What this privacy notice is for

Our core data protection obligations and commitments are set out in the MioCare Group primary privacy notice at https://www.miocare.co.uk/about/data_protection/

This notice provides additional privacy information for Shared Lives Carers. The Shared Lives Oldham Scheme offers vulnerable adults the opportunity to live with approved families and carers within their local community. The scheme supports adults with learning disabilities, mental health problems or other needs that make it harder for them to live on their own. The scheme matches someone who needs care with an approved carer. The carer shares their family and community life and gives care and support to the person with care needs.

Updating our privacy notices

We may update or revise our privacy notices at any time so please refer to the version published on our website for the most up to date details

What we use your information for

We collect your personal information for the following purpose(s):

- To recruit and approve Shared Lives Carers
- To maintain a safe and effective service, in line with regulatory requirements
- To maintain your records in support of your care needs
- To ensure accurate payments are made
- To provide training and support
- To promote the service, we provide
- To obtain feedback in the form of consultation and satisfaction surveys

What categories of personal information we use

Personal information can be anything that identifies and relates to a living person. This can include information that when linked with other information, allows a person to be uniquely identified. For example, this could be your name and contact details.

The law treats some types of personal information as 'special' because the information requires more protection due to its sensitivity. This information consists of:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Sexuality and sexual life
- Religious or philosophical beliefs
- Trade union membership
- Political opinions
- Genetic and bio-metric data
- Physical or mental health
- Criminal convictions and offences

In order to carry out these purposes we collect and obtain the following personal information:

Category of personal data	Special/ Sensitive
Personal details (e.g. name, address, contact details)
Date of birth
Gender
Racial or ethnic origin	Yes
Sexuality and sexual life	Yes
Religious or philosophical beliefs	Yes
Physical or mental health	Yes
Lifestyle and social circumstances (e.g. housing tenure, employment and marriage Status)
Financial details
Employment references and education details
Criminal proceedings, outcomes and sentences	Yes
Advocate/family members/next of kin details

Legal basis for processing

The legal basis for processing and or sharing your personal information includes, but is not limited to:

- Legal obligation
- Consent
- Vital interest

Examples of legislation that support this are listed below:

- Care Act 2014
- Equality Act 2010
- Health and Safety Legislation

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the carer agreement we have entered into with you or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations in line with CQC regulated activities.

Information sharing/recipients

We may share personal information about you with the following organisations/types of organisation:

- Shared Lives Plus
- Regulatory Authorities
- Health care, social and welfare organisations
- Disclosure and Barring Service
- Training Providers
- Oldham Council

Identifiable Personal Information could be shared under the following circumstances:

- Safeguarding, if something you tell us raises a safeguarding concern
- You raise a specific personal issue or concern that requires addressing
- You ask us to share your personal details

As well as information collected directly from you, we also obtain or receive information from:

- Health care, social and welfare organisations
- Disclosure and Barring Service
- Training Providers
- Oldham Council
- Landlords
- Mortgage companies
- Current and/or previous employers
- Members of the public, if for example, there are safeguarding concerns or complaints

Data Transfers beyond the UK

We do not transfer any of your personal information outside the UK.

Automated Decisions

All the decisions we make about you involve human intervention.

How long we keep your data

We will only keep your personal information for as long as the law specifies or where the law does not specify this, for the length of time determined by our business requirements. This ranges from three to five years from the date you cease being a carer, depending on the nature of the data collected.

Where can I get advice

More information on how to seek advice in order to exercise your rights, raise a concern or complain about the handling of your personal information by MioCare Group can be found in the privacy notice which can be found at https://www.miocare.co.uk/about/data_protection/